ORLANDO FAMILY STAY COMPARISON GUIDE

Typical Brand Hotel vs. Townhouse Stay

1. SPACE & PRIVACY

TYPICAL BRAND HOTEL

One Main Sleeping Room

A typical hotel room generally centres the family in one main sleeping/living area.

TOWNHOUSE STAY

Separate Living, Sleeping & Outdoor Space

A townhome provides separate bedrooms, each with a private bathroom, plus a dedicated living room, kitchen, dining room, downstairs storage closet for suitcases and a screened-in porch with table and chairs for outdoor meals or relaxing, giving family members more room and privacy.

2. BEDROOMS & BATHROOMS

TYPICAL BRAND HOTEL

Shared Bedroom / Bathroom Layout

A standard hotel stay commonly means fewer separate bedrooms and bathrooms for everyone travelling together.

TOWNHOUSE STAY

Master Bedrooms & Private Bathrooms

Two separate master bedrooms with king-size beds, each with its own private bathroom, plus additional bathroom convenience.

3. KITCHEN & MEAL FLEXIBILITY

TYPICAL BRAND HOTEL

Limited In-Room Meal Facilities

Hotel rooms may provide basic refreshment facilities, leaving many meals dependent on restaurants or takeaway options.

TOWNHOUSE STAY

Full Kitchen & BBQ Flexibility

A full kitchen plus BBQ/picnic facilities gives families the option to prepare breakfast, snacks and meals on their own schedule.

4. RESORT LIFESTYLE

TYPICAL BRAND HOTEL

Hotel Amenities Vary

Facilities differ by hotel and may focus mainly on the room, pool and common areas.

TOWNHOUSE STAY

More Ways To Enjoy The Stay

Pool, Jacuzzi, tennis, basketball, clubhouse, children's playground and outdoor BBQ/picnic facilities create more ways to spend time together.

5. EVERYDAY CONVENIENCE

TYPICAL BRAND HOTEL

Hotel-Room Practicalities

Longer family stays can mean working around limited storage, meal preparation and laundry options.

TOWNHOUSE STAY

Designed For A Longer Family Stay

More living space, free on-site parking and on-site facilities with brand new washers and dryers can make an extended Orlando holiday easier to manage.

6. LOCATION & THE OVERALL EXPERIENCE

TYPICAL BRAND HOTEL

Location Can Add Travel Time

A hotel may be in the wider Orlando area but still require more travelling to reach the main Disney attractions.

TOWNHOUSE STAY

Stay Close To The Magic

A townhouse located only 1 mile from Walt Disney's main gate can mean less travel time, more park time and greater flexibility throughout the holiday.
